EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Chayet & Danzo, LLC Denver, Colorado with offices in Vail, Colorado and Aspen Colorado

Managing Partner. February 2002 - Present

Chayet & Danzo, LLC, is a full-service elder law, probate litigation and estate planning law practice. While I am well versed in all aspects of my law firm, my focus has been on probate litigation, guardianships, conservatorships, fiduciary services and special needs planning. Other expertise includes Guardian ad Litem work (having served as a GAL on over 100+ cases) and serving as a trustee, conservator and personal representative. With experience in hundreds of probate cases and probate court appearances, I also have Co-Counsel and Expert experience in the settlement of personal injury cases under probate Rule 62. Other Co-Counsel and Expert experience includes divorce and family law with issues of incapacity, as well as expert work in the areas of reasonableness of attorney and fiduciary fees in probate cases, disability planning, long term care, public benefits and associated real estate and business transactions in matters of estates, trusts, probate and elder law.

Adjunct Professor of Law in Elder Law, University of Colorado School of Law, 2015- Present

Appointed as Adjunct Professor of Law to develop and teach the first elder law curriculum at the University of Colorado School of Law in Boulder, Colorado.

Public Administrator for the 18th Judicial District (18JDPA, LLC)

Judicial Appointment on February 6, 2014, for Arapahoe County, Douglas County, Elbert County and Lincoln County. Appointed as conservator, trustee, and personal representative for estates and cases in the 18th Judicial District. A Public Administrator is a private individual (not a public employee) appointed by the Chief Judge to collect, protect, and manage the assets of individuals and estates.

Law Offices of S.G.H., P.C., Denver, Colorado

Associate Counsel. October 1998- February 2002

Attorney and Law Clerk (1997) for a nationally recognized elder law, probate litigation and estate planning attorney. Handled all aspects of this law practice with proven success of client generation.
